

Florida Children's Museum's Reciprocal Program

There is no fee to participate or formal contract. This is NOT ACM or AAM's program. This is an informal, verbal agreement permitting Florida Children's Museum member families to visit reciprocal Children's Museums in Florida. Children's Museums that are free or have membership fees ($100+) or have other children's museums in close proximity may not choose to participate for a variety of reasons. It is all up to the individual museum administration.

Requirements:

- Must be current FAM member
- Must offer FREE admission (no other benefits apply) to card carrying members of a reciprocal FL Children's Museum.
- Participating Museum's annual Membership fee must be at least $50 (the FAM Children's Section decides when to adjust this) but it's always the individual museum's decision as to what to charge for their own museum membership.

Benefits:

- There is no fee to participate and no formal contract
- Reciprocal promotion from FAM Member Children's Museums (we cross promote)
- Increased admissions due to reciprocal admissions
- Added benefits to your museum membership that families appreciate
