Please join the
Florida Division of Cultural Affairs
at a state summit for
CREATIVE FORCES
OCTOBER 23 & 24, 2017

Straz Center for the Performing Arts
1010 N Macinnes Place, Tampa

Creative Forces places creative arts therapies at the core of patient-centered care at eleven military medical facilities across the country, as well as a telehealth program to reach patients in rural and remote areas. James A. Haley Veterans' Hospital in Tampa is one of the clinical sites. Join attendees at the summit to learn and discuss strategies to increase access to therapeutic arts activities for military personnel and their families in local communities.

There is no charge for this event. Attendance is limited. Reserve your spot today.
