The Office of Federal/State Partnership at the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) hosted the webinar, “Federal Resources for Cultural Organizations Before, During, and After Natural Disasters” on October 15, 2020. A recording of the webinar is available at this link: <https://youtu.be/LccoVCAbc-c>

Description: In this webinar, attendees will learn about federal resources to help prepare for, respond to, and support the cultural sector’s recovery from a natural disaster. Presenters include Tatiana Ausema, senior program officer, Division of Preservation and Access, NEH; Nana Kaneko, program manager for Cultural Disaster Analysis, Mellon/ACLS Public Fellow, Smithsonian Cultural Rescue Initiative (SCRI); Eric Lupfer, executive director, Humanities Texas (HT); and Miranda Restovic, president/executive director, Louisiana Endowment for the Humanities (LEH). As a result of this webinar, attendees will be better prepared to support cultural institutions and communities affected by natural disasters.
